ITEMS FOR CONSIDERATION/ACTION

1. Pedestrian Master Plan – Five Proposed Priority Projects

Staff presented nine proposed projects, five of which, will be further developed into concept plans. The concept plans will have a greater amount of design detail and construction estimates. These can be used for grant applications and/or continued development into a Capital Improvement Project. The projects were considered on project scoring, geographic equity, concept duplication. The five projects selected are:

- Cuesta Drive concept plan: San Antonio Road/1st Street to Springer (high level summary with 1-2 details)
- Springer/El Monte/Almond intersection: reconfigure with slip lane closure(s) and potential pocket park
- Miramonte Road Shared Use Path/Trail: Covington to Loyola Corners (high level summary with 1-2 details)
- Grant Road Shared Use Path/Trail: Grant Road to Homestead.
- Sidewalk Gap Closure or Expansion Project TBD (Oak Ave/Grant, El Monte n/o Foothill, Los Altos Ave near Santa Rita)

On a motion by Suzanne Ambiel, seconded by Chris Hlavka, the above 5 projects are approved.
